

Edgefield County Chamber – Citizen of the Year Award

It time to acknowledge the 21st Annual Chamber of Commerce’s Citizen of the Year. If you know someone who deserves this award (good leadership or community service role, volunteer work, etc) please fill out an application form (call the Chamber office for nomination form) and return it to the Chamber office by Tuesday, September 13th. The Citizen must be a resident of Edgefield County.

2016 Citizen of the Year

Personal Profile (please fill in as much as possible)

Name _____
Address _____
Phone _____ Marital Status _____
Name of Spouse _____
Number of Children _____
Nominee’s Employer _____ Position _____

Please provide: Leadership and Community Service Roles (including civic, professional, religious organizations, etc.) Awards, Special Recognitions and Volunteer Work _____

Also, why do you consider the nominee an outstanding candidate for Edgefield County Citizen of the Year? Additional Comments? Other information and materials in support of this candidate? _____

Name of Person making nomination:

Name _____
Address _____
Phone _____

Please complete and return by September 13th, 2016

Citizen of the Year Committee
Edgefield County Chamber of Commerce
416 Calhoun Street
Johnston, SC 29832

Winner will be announced at the Edgefield County Celebration of Success Reception, Sunday, September 25th, 2016, 3:00 PM at Strom Thurmond High School

Past winners of the award include: Watson Rhodes, Dixie Rucker, John Timmerman, Tim Campbell, Jackie Boatwright, Bettis Rainsford, Ken Durham, Anne Dukes, Mr. & Mrs. Weston Brazell, Rev. Kevin Cooley, Lynn Rearden, Helen Carpenter, Andy Livingston, Jimmy Painter, Dr. Wiley E. “Buddy” Turner, Anna Timmerman, Brad Covar, Becky Turner, Wayne Miller and last year’s winner Sam Watson. As you can see we have a wide range of community involvement in our past winners.

Please support the Chamber with your nominations for the Citizen of the Year. We need everyone’s input from the county, so we can choose the best candidate(s) for the title.

Acknowledgement of our Citizen of the Year and Teachers of the Year, Support Staff of the Year, and our District Teacher of the Year, as well as District Support Staff of the Year - Celebration of Success 2016 will be held, Sunday afternoon, September 25th, beginning at 3:00 PM in the Strom Thurmond High School cafeteria, with a reception and program honoring our winners.